

Do you feel yourself breathing again? The news of vaccines, more sunny days and signs of spring allow you the space to take a breath and relax. The fresh, hopeful perspective can show on your skin. So, choose to take care of yourself this month and let your skin reap the benefits.

Tips for Gentle Skincare this Month

- 1 Reduce inflammation. If it is red, swollen, hurts or itches, those are signs of inflammation. Schedule a visit with us to diagnose and manage the issue.
- 2 Protect your skin. Wear sunscreen daily!
- 3 Focus and get results. Don't product jump, but instead choose results-driven products that you enjoy using and stick with them!
